

OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT MAGISTRATE
SOUTH ANDAMAN DISTRICT
SRI VIJAYA PURAM

Sri Vijaya Puram, dated the 15th February, 2026

ORDER NO. 168/2026

WHEREAS, as per the report received from the Superintendent of Police, South Andaman District vide Letter No. SP(D) SA/R/2026/647 dated 15/02/2026 and other reliable sources that a bandh has been called on 16/02/2026 by certain organizations within the jurisdiction of this District;

AND WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of India in Bharat Kumar v. State of Kerala (1998) has declared that calling for and enforcing a "bandh" is unconstitutional and no political party or organization has the right to infringe the fundamental rights of other citizens under Article 19(1)(g) and Article 21 of the Constitution of India.

AND WHEREAS, present intelligence inputs indicate a strong likelihood of:

- Obstruction of public roads and highways;
- Disruption of public transport services;
- Disruption to Educational Institutions' exams and academic activities
- Forcible closure of establishments;
- Disturbance of public order;

AND WHEREAS, such acts are likely to result in public nuisance, danger to life, obstruction of lawful movement, and infringement of fundamental rights under Articles 19 and 21 of the Constitution of India;
