3. Election to the Union Territory Veterinary Council :—

- (1) Notification for election to the Council :— For the purpose of electing the members of the Andaman and Nicobar Union Territory Veterinary Council under Clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 32, Administration shall, by a notification published in its official Gazette, call upon the persons enrolled in the Andaman and Nicobar Veterinary Register maintained under chapter VII of the Act (or, for brevity, the register) to elect the said members in accordance with the provisions of these rules.
- (2) Preparation of the roll :— (i) As soon as may be after the notification under sub-rule (1) is issued, the Registrar shall prepare the roll which shall contain the name of every person whose name is entered in the register.
(ii) The names of the electors shall be arranged in the order in which they are entered in the register.
- (3) Publication of the roll in draft :— The registrar shall publish the roll prepared under sub-rule (2) in draft by making a copy thereof available for inspection by displaying it in the office of the Andaman and Nicobar Union Territory Veterinary Council.
- (4) Period for lodging claims and objections :— Every claim for inclusion of a name in the roll and every objection to an entry shall therein be lodged within a period of thirty days from the date of publication of the roll draft under sub-rule (3) in Forms I and II respectively.
- (5) Forms of Claim and Objection and the manner of their disposal :— (i) Every Claim in Form I shall be signed by the person who requires his name to be included in the roll.
(ii) Every objection in Form II for the inclusion of a name in the roll shall be preferred by a person whose name is already included in the roll and shall be countersigned by another person whose name is also included in the roll.
(iii) Every such claim or objection, as the case may be shall be, examined by the Registrar who shall record his remarks thereon, following which he may either allow or reject the claim or objection :

Provided that a claim or objection shall not be rejected unless the person making it is given an opportunity of making representation against such rejection.

- (iv) The decision of the Registrar allowing or rejecting a claim or objection shall be final.
- (6) Final Publication of the roll :— (i) The Registrar shall, after disposing of the claims and objections, if any, under sub-rule (5) prepare a list of amendments to carry out his decisions under the said sub rule and to carry out any clerical or printing error and other inaccuracies in the roll subsequently discovered or brought to his notice.
(ii) The Registrar shall publish the roll together with the list of amendments by making a complete copy thereof available for inspection by displaying it at the office of the Union Territory Veterinary Council.
(iii) On such publication, the roll together with the list of amendments shall be the electoral roll of persons who may elect the members of the Union Territory Veterinary Council under clause (a) of sub-section 32 of the Act.
(iv) A copy of the roll together with the list of amendments published under sub-rule (ii) shall be sent by the Registrar to the Administration.

(7) Returning Officer and Assistant Returning Officers :—

- (i) The Administration shall, after receipt of a copy of the electoral roll published under sub-rule (6), designate or nominate a Returning Officer who shall be an officer of the Administration.
- (ii) The Administration may also appoint one or more persons, who shall also be officers of the Administration to assist the Returning Officer in the performance of his functions as Assistant Returning Officers.
- (iii) Every Assistant Returning Officer shall, subject to the control of the Returning Officer, be competent to perform all or any of the functions of the Returning Officer :

Provided that no Assistant Returning Officer shall perform any of the functions of the Returning Officer which relate to the issue of ballot papers, counting of ballot papers and declaration of results of elections.

(8) Appointment of dates for nomination, etc. :—

- (i) The Returning Officer shall, by notification in the Official gazette of Andaman & Nicobar Administration or in such other manner deemed fit, appoint:—
 - (a) The date for making nomination which shall be the seventh day after the date of publication of the said notification or, if that day is public holiday, the next succeeding day which is not a public holiday ;
 - (b) The last date of withdrawal of candidatures which shall be the second day after date for scrutiny of nominations or; if that day is a public holiday, the next succeeding day which is not a public holiday ;
 - (c) The date on which a poll shall, if necessary, be taken which shall be a date not earlier than the thirteenth day after the last date for withdrawal of candidature ; and
 - (d) The date, the time and the place for counting of votes and for declaration of results which shall not be beyond the third day from the date of the poll.
- (ii) The notification issued under clause (i) of sub-rule 8 shall also invite nomination of the candidates for election on the Union Territory Veterinary Council and specify the place at which the nomination paras are to be delivered.

(9) Presentation of nomination paper and requirement for VALID nomination :—

- (i) On or before the date appointed under clause (i) (a) of sub-rule (8), each candidate shall send by registered post with acknowledgement due or deliver in person to the Returning Officer a nomination paper in Form III
- (ii) Subscribed by two electors—one as the proposer and the other as the seconder and assented by the candidate proposed and seconded by them :

Provided that no elector shall subscribe as proposer or seconder more nomination papers than these are seats to be filled up :

Provided further that, if an elector subscribes to more number of nomination papers than there are seats to be filled up, the nomination papers first received by the Returning Officer equal to the number of seats to be filled up shall, if they are otherwise in order, be held to be valid, and if all such nomination papers subscribed by the same elector in excess of the number of seats to be filled up are received simultaneously, all such nomination papers shall hold to be invalid

- (iii) On receipt of each nomination paper the Returning Officer shall endorse thereon the date and the hour of receipt.

(10) Rejection of nomination papers :—

- (i) A nomination paper which is not received on or before the date appointed by the Returning Officer in that behalf shall be rejected.

(11) Scrutiny of nomination papers :—

- (i) On the date and the time appointed by the Returning Officer for scrutiny of nomination papers, the candidates and the proposer and the seconder of each candidate or other representatives duly authorised by the candidates in this behalf may attend the office of the Returning Officer who shall allow them to examine the nomination papers of all the candidates which have been received by him as aforesaid.
- (ii) The Returning Officer shall examine the nomination papers thus received and decide all questions which may arise as to validity of any nomination, and his decision thereon shall be final.

(12) Withdrawal of Candidature :—

- (i) Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer before the date fixed under clause (i) (b) of sub rule (8).
- (ii) A candidate who has withdrawn his candidature shall not be allowed to cancel the withdrawal or to be renominated as a candidate for the same election.

(13) Publication of the list of contesting candidates :—

- (i) Immediately after the expiry of the period within which candidatures may be withdrawn under sub rule (12), the Returning Officer shall prepare and publish a list of contesting candidates that is to say, candidates who were validity nominated and who have not withdrawn their candidatures within the said period.

(ii) The said list shall contain the names (in alphabetical order) and the addresses of the contesting candidates as given in the nomination papers.

(iii) The said list shall be published in the Official Gazette of Andaman and Nicobar Administration and be given wide publicity in such manner as the Returning Officer may deem fit.

(14) The Poll:—

(i) The number of duly nominated candidates for election does not exceed the number of members to be elected, the Returning Officer shall forthwith declare such candidates to be duly elected.

(ii) If the number of such candidates exceeds the number of members to be so elected, the Returning Officer shall, not later than thirty days before the date appointed for the poll, send by airmail to every elector residing or practising abroad, and by post to every other elector within the Union Territory or outside it but within the country, a letter of intimation in Form IV together with a numbered declaration paper in Form V, a voting paper in Form VI containing the names of the candidates in alphabetical order and bearing Returning Officer's initials or facimile signature, a voting paper cover addressed to the Returning Officer & outer also addressed to the said Officer.

Provided that the voting paper and other connected papers may also be sent to any elector on his applying to the Returning Officer for the same before the date appointed for the poll, if the Returning Officer is satisfied that the papers have not been sent to him.

(iii) A certificate of posting shall be obtained in respect of each such letter of intimation sent to an elector.

(iv) An elector who has not received the voting and other connected papers sent to him by post or who has lost them or in whose case the papers before their return to the Returning Officer have been inadvertently spoilt, may transmit a declaration in writing to that effect and request that Returning Officer not later than fifteen days before the date appointed for poll to send him fresh papers, and if the papers have been spoilt, the spoilt papers shall be returned to the Returning Officer who shall cancel them on receipt.

(v) In every case, in which such fresh papers have been issued a mark shall be placed against the number relating to the elector's name in the electoral roll to denote that fresh papers have been issued to him.

(vi) No election shall be invalid by reason of non-receipt by an elector of his voting paper and other connected papers.

(vii) Each elector shall have the right to vote for as many candidates as there are seats to be filled by the election, and the vote shall be non-transferable.

(viii) Every elector desirous of recording his vote shall, after filling up the declaration paper in Form V and the voting paper in Form VI according to the directions given in the letter of intimation in Form IV, enclose the ballot paper in the ballot paper cover, stick up and enclose the said cover along with the declaration paper in the outer envelope addressed to the Returning Officer and send outer envelope by post at the elector's own cost or by hand to the Returning Officer, so as to reach him not later than the appointed time for closure of voting on the date fixed for the poll.

(ix) On receipt by post, or by hand, of the envelope containing the declaration paper and the closed cover containing the ballot paper, the Returning Officer shall endorse the outer envelope the date and the hour of its receipt.

(x) All envelopes received after the said day and hour shall be rejected.

(15) Opening of the cover:—

(i) The Returning Officer shall open the outer envelopes immediately after the appointed time for closure of voting on the date fixed for the poll at the place to which the envelopes are addressed to him.

(ii) Any candidate may be present in person or may send a representative duly authorised by him in writing, to be present at the time when the outer envelopes are opened.

(16) Rejection of ballot paper covers:—

(i) A voting paper shall be rejected by the Returning Officer if:—

(a) The outer envelope contains no declaration paper outside the voting paper cover, or

- (b) The declaration paper is not the one sent by the Returning Officer, or
- (c) The declaration paper is not signed by the elector, or
- (d) The voting paper is placed outside the voting paper cover, or
- (e) More than one declaration paper or voting paper cover have been enclosed in one end and the same outer envelope.

- (ii) In each case of rejection, the word 'rejected' shall be endorsed on the ballot paper cover and the declaration paper. The reason for the rejection shall also be recorded, in brief, on the voting paper cover.
- (iii) After satisfying himself that the electors have affixed their signatures to the declaration papers, the Returning Officer shall keep all declaration papers in safe custody pending disposal under sub-rule (19).

(17) Scrutiny and counting of votes :—

- (i) On the date appointed for counting of votes, the voting paper cover other than these rejected under sub-rule (16), shall be opened and the voting papers taken out and mixed together.
- (ii) The voting papers shall then be scrutinised and the valid vote counted.
- (iii) Any candidate may be present in person or may send a representative duly authorised by him, in writing, to watch the process of counting.
- (iv) A voting paper shall be invalid if :—
 - (a) it does not bear the Returning Officer's initials or facsimile signature, or
 - (b) a voter signs his name on the voting paper, or writes any word on it, or makes a mark on it by which it becomes recognisable as his voting paper, or
 - (c) no vote is recorded thereon, or
 - (d) it is void for uncertainty of the vote recorded, or
 - (e) the number of votes recorded thereon exceed the number to be elected, or
 - (f) the recording of the vote has been done at a place other than that provided for the purpose.
 - (v) The Returning Officer shall show the voting papers to the candidates or their authorised representatives at the time of scrutiny and counting of votes, if so requested.
 - (vi) If any candidate or his representative makes an objection to the acceptance of a voting paper on the ground that it does not comply with the specified requirements, or to the rejection of a voting paper by the Returning Officer, it shall be decided at once by the Returning Officer whose decision thereon shall be final.
 - (vii) The Returning Officer shall nominate such number of scrutinisers as he deems fit in accordance with such directions as may be issued in this behalf by the Union Territory Administration of Andaman & Nicobar Islands.

(18) Declaration of results :—(i) When the counting of votes has been completed, the Returning Officer shall draw up a list of candidates in the order of highest votes polled by each and shall declare the result of the successful candidates in that order according to the number of seats to be filled up.

- (ii) If any candidate thus declared elected refuses to accept the election, then in the place of their candidate one of the remaining candidates to whom the next largest number of votes have been cast, shall be deemed to have been elected and the same procedure shall be adopted as often as a vacancy is caused in this way.
- (iii) When there is equality of votes among any two or more candidates, then the person or persons, as the case may be, who shall be deemed to have been elected shall be determined by lots to be drawn by the Returning Officer or any other Officer authorised by him in such manner as he may determine.
- (iv) The Returning Officer shall, as soon as the result is declared in form each successful candidate of his being elected to the Union Territory Veterinary Council.

(19) Voting papers to be retained :—Upon completion of the counting and after the result has been declared, the Returning Officer shall seal the ballot papers and all other documents relating to the election, and shall retain the same for a period of six months, and shall not destroy or cause to be destroyed these records even after the expiry of the said six months without the previous concurrence of the Andaman and Nicobar Administration.

(20) Intimation of results of election :—

- (i) The Returning Officer shall intimate the names of the elected candidates to the Andaman and Nicobar Administration for enabling it to fulfil its statutory obligation of publishing their names in the official Gazette of Andaman & Nicobar Administration under sub-section (2) of section 32 of the Act.
- (ii) In case of any dispute regarding the election which may be lodged with the Returning Officer within fifteen days of declaration of the results of that election it shall be referred to the Andaman & Nicobar Administration for its decision under section 37 of the Act, which shall be final.

4. Election of the President of the Union Territory Veterinary Council.

1. Register of members of the Union Territory Veterinary Council.

The Officer of the Union Territory Veterinary Council shall maintain a register in Form VII giving the names and other details of the members elected or nominated to it from time to time.

2. Procedure for election of the President of the Union Territory Veterinary Council.

- (i) The election of the President of the Union Territory Veterinary Council by the members of the Council from amongst themselves shall be held at the first meeting of the said Council after its constitution or reconstitution, as the case may be.
- (ii) The Registrar shall invite the members present at that meeting to make their nominations for the office of the said president. Each nomination shall be supported by another member present at that meeting as the seconder :—

Provided that no member shall nominate or second more than one member for the said presidentship.

- (iii) If there be only one person so nominated, he shall be declared duly elected as the President of the Union Territory Veterinary Council.
- (iv) If, however, there be more than one member duly nominated and seconded for the said Presidentship, the Registrar shall proceed to take ballots in the following manners, namely:—
 - (a) A slip of paper shall be given to every member present who shall write on it the name of one of the contestants in whose favour the member wishes to cast his vote. He shall then fold the slip and hand it over to the Registrar.
 - (b) On receipt of all the slips the Registrar shall count the number of votes secured by each contestant and shall declare that member who secures the largest number of votes to be duly elected as the President of the Union Territory Veterinary Council.
 - (c) If there is an equality in the votes secured by two or more contestants thus making it difficult to decide as to who gets the maximum votes the Registrar may decide the issue by taking lots in such manner as he deems fit, and the person so identified by the draw of lots shall be declared as duly elected as the President of the Union Territory Veterinary Council.

5. Procedure for transaction of business of the Union Territory Veterinary Council.

- (i) Time and place of business:—The business meetings of the Union Territory Veterinary Council shall ordinarily be held once in every three months at such time and place as may be decided by its President :—

Provided that the place chosen shall be within the Andaman & Nicobar Islands.

- (ii) The President of the Union Territory Veterinary Council may in the course of a business meeting of the said council decide the date for its next meeting.
- (iii) A special meeting of the Union Territory Veterinary Council, if deemed necessary shall be called by the said President often days notice at any time.
- (iv) The first meeting of the Union Territory Veterinary Council held in any financial year shall be the annual meeting of that Council for that year.
- (v) The minutes of every meeting other than a special meeting called under sub rule (3) shall be despatched by the Registrar by hand or by registered post to every member of the Union Territory Veterinary Council not later than thirty days after the said meeting.
- (vi) The items of business on the preliminary agenda of an ordinary quarterly meeting of the Union Territory Veterinary Council shall be intimated to the members by the Registrar, in writing, well in advance of the meeting and in any case not less than thirty days prior to the date fixed for the meeting.

- (vii) In the case of a special meeting, however, the Registrar shall, not less than ten days before the date fixed for the meeting, issue along with the notice for the said meeting the items of business on the agenda proposed for that meeting.
- (viii) A member who wishes to move any notice not included of the agenda for an ordinary meeting or to move an amendment to any items of agenda so included, shall give notice thereof to the Registrar, in writing not less than fifteen days before the date fixed for the meeting. Thereafter the Registrar shall in consultation with the President of the Union Territory Veterinary Council, accommodate such a request on the final agenda for the meeting.
- (ix) Every meeting of the Union Territory Veterinary Council shall be presided over by its president when present or, in his absence, by any other member chosen by the members present from amongst themselves to preside over that meeting.
- (x) (a) The quorum necessary for transaction of business at a meeting of the Union Territory Veterinary Council shall not be less than one third of the strength of the Council.
 (b) If at the time appointed for a meeting there is no quorum then the meeting shall not commence until there is a quorum, and if even at the expiry of one hour from the appointed time there is no quorum the meeting shall stand adjourned to such future date and time in the same quarter as the president of the Union Territory Veterinary Council may appoint.
- (xi) All questions which come up before any meeting of the Union Territory Veterinary Council shall be decided by a majority of the members present and voting.
- (xii) In the case of an equality of votes, the presiding person shall have casting vote.
- (xiii) A copy of the minutes of each meeting of the Union Territory Veterinary Council, whether ordinary or special, shall be submitted to its President within two days of the meeting and after being attested by him sent to each member as provided under sub rule (5).

6. Executive And Other Committees.

1. The Union Territory Veterinary Council may, under section 40 of the Act, appoint from among its members an Executive Committee and other committees, on the adoption of a motion to this effect, for such purpose as it may consider necessary and define the purpose and functions of such committee in the said motion itself.
2. The Union Territory Veterinary Council may also co-opt any person or persons specially qualified to advise on any matter to any committee other than the Executive Committee, by adopting a motion to this effect.
3. The quorum for a meeting of the Executive Committee or other committee shall be specified at the time of appointment of the concerned committee(s) and shall not be less than the simple majority of members appointed in this regard.
4. The Executive Committee and other committees so appointed shall report to the Registrar of the Union Territory Veterinary Council on the matters referred in the motion(s) appointing the said committee(s) within the time frame specified for this purpose in the said motions.
5. Save in exceptional circumstances, no extension of time shall be given to any committee appointed by the Union Territory Veterinary Council under sub rule (1) ibid read with section 40 of the Act.
6. The Registrar shall place before the Union Territory Veterinary Council the said report of the committee at the next meeting of the council.
7. Fees and allowances to President and other members of the Union Territory Veterinary Council and members of the Committees (other than members of the Union Territory Veterinary Council).
 - a) The President and other members of the Union Territory Veterinary Council other than the Administration's officials & ex-officio members shall, under section 41 of the Act, be paid travelling allowances as applicable to class I officers of the Administration, for attending the meetings of the said council and committee(s).
 - b) The members of the committees other than the members of the Union Territory Veterinary Council, shall also be paid likewise travelling allowances for attending the meetings of the committees.

- c) The Administration's Officials who are nominated by the Administration and ex-Officio members shall, however be entitled for travelling and other allowances as per Government institution rules from their respective offices/organisations.
- d) As far the daily allowances for non-official members, they shall be paid amounts equivalent to these admissible to Class I Officials of the Administration.
- e) A fee of Rs. 50/- shall be paid to all members other than the President of the Union Territory Veterinary Council and Government officials who are members for attending a meeting of the Union Territory Veterinary Council or the Executive Committee or other committees.
- f) For the president of the Union Territory Veterinary Council if he is not a Administration's official, an amount of Rs. 100/- shall be paid for each meeting of the Union Territory Veterinary Council, and Rs. 50/- for other meetings.
- g) Where a member of the Union Territory Veterinary Council other than its president presides over a meeting of the council under sub rule 5(9), he shall be paid a fee of Rs. 100/-
- h) Terms and conditions of Service of Registrar and other officers and employees:—

The terms and conditions of Service of the Registrar and other officers and employees appointed by the Union Territory Veterinary Council shall be these applicable to similar Administration's officials under the Service rules.

8. Union Territory Veterinary Council Register :—

The Administration Union Territory Veterinary Council, as the case may be, shall, as provided for under section 44 of the Act, maintain the Union Territory Veterinary Register for Andaman and Nicobar Islands in Form VIII containing the names and other relevant particulars of the persons possessing the recognised Veterinary qualifications and registered with the Union Territory Veterinary Council under the Act.

9. Application for registration and registration fees :—

- a) Every person who holds a recognised Veterinary Qualification and who desires his name to be registered with the Union Territory Council shall apply to the Registration Tribunal/the Registrar, as the case may, in Form IX duly filled in and signed by himself.
- b) Every such application shall be accompanied by a registration fee of Rs. 25/- as per postal order.
- c) On the entry of a person's name in the Union Territory Veterinary Council Register, the Registrar shall issue to him a certificate of registration in Form X.

10. Renewal fee for registration :—

- (i) Any person desiring to retain his name in the Union Territory Veterinary Register shall pay to the Union Territory Veterinary Council every five years a registration renewal fee of Rs. 15/- before the 1st day of April, of the year in which his registration renewal falls due.
- (ii) Where the said renewal fee is not paid within the period mentioned in sub-rule (1) the defaulter's name shall stand removed from the said register and shall be registered to it only after the payment of the renewal fee with fine which shall be Rs. 15/- for every one month or part thereof of his default.

11. Fee for restoration of a name :—

The fee for restoration of a name removed from the State Veterinary Register under section 49 of the Act shall be Rs. 25/-.

12. Cost of the Union Territory Veterinary Council Register :—

The charge leviable from persons applying for a copy of the Union Territory Veterinary register shall be Rs. 10/-.
