Two-Day Special Guest Lecture on Management Held at MGGC, Mayabunder Mayabunder, 29 September 2026

A two-day special guest lecture on Management was organised at Mahatma Gandhi Government College (MGGC), Mayabunder, on 28 and 29 September 2026.

Dr. C. Madhavaiah, Professor, Department of Management Studies, Pondicherry University, Sri Vijaya Puram Campus, served as the resource person for the lecture series. On 28 September 2026, he delivered a special lecture on "Degrees, Dreams and Jobs—Why Education and Employment Don't Match." The lecture focused on the widening gap between formal education, career aspirations and the changing requirements of the employment sector. On 29 September 2026, Dr. Madhavaiah delivered a lecture on "Evolution of the New Creator Economy—Digital Storytellers and Social Media Influencers." He discussed the emergence of the creator economy and the growing professional opportunities associated with digital storytelling, social media and online content creation.

Students from the Departments of Commerce and Economics attended the lecture series and actively participated in the sessions. The lectures provided the students with valuable insights into contemporary management trends, employability, emerging career pathways and the evolving nature of work in the digital age. Dr. R. V. R. Murthy, Principal, Mahatma Gandhi Government College, offered felicitations to the resource person and expressed his appreciation for conducting the special guest lecture series for the benefit of the students. Dr. Kandimuthu, HoD of Economics Coordinated the event. Dr. Rohit Shah, HoD of Commerce, Proposed the vote of Thanks.
