iii.) The procedure followed in the decision-making process, including channels of supervision and accountability.

At the level of Police Station, it is the Station House Officer (SHO), who sets in motion the criminal justice process by registering complaints as First Information Reports (FIR) under appropriate section of law. He will take appropriate action as per law, depending on whether the case is cognizable or non-cognizable. In case of any inaction or wrong action on the part of Station House Officer, the supervisory officer concerned namely SDPO (Sub-Divisional Police Officer or District Superintendent of Police can direct the Station House Officer for taking appropriate action). Further, if necessary, higher formation in the Police headquarters i.e. Inspector General of Police (Law & Order) /Dy. Inspector General of Police (Law & Order) and Director General of Police, Andaman & Nicobar Islands can also exercise the power overruling the decision of their juniors at District, Sub Division or P/S Level. In regard to Out post, Jarawa Protection posts and Look Out Posts, the officer in-charge concerned is required to forward the complaint/report to the Station House Officer for legal action.

Because of structure of lines of command in the Police administration Police utmost importance is given to adherence to prescribed channels of communication. These have been well defined and any violation thereof is considered a grave breach of discipline.

SOUTH ANDAMAN POLICE

1. E-MALKHANA WITH STATE-OF-THE ART OR CODE TECHNOLOGY

E-Malkhana has been successfully implemented in South Andaman District. Further, all police stations in the district have generated QR codes for all case properties kept in the police station Malkhana these QR code have been affixed to the respective properties.

"E- MALKHANA"

South Andaman District Police pioneered in implementing E- MALKHANA system across all police station of the South Andaman District. The E- MALKHANA system introduced digitalization to the management of case properties stored at malkhana of Police stations. With the implementation of this system, accessing details of case properties stored at the police station malkhana becomes more efficient and convenient. It not only improves accessibility but also enhances transparency and accountability in the handling of case properties.

NORTH AND MIDDLE ANDAMAN DISTRICT

1. "SWARKSHA"

The North & Middle Andaman District Police launched "SWARAKSHA" a self-defense program specifically designed to empower female students in colleges and schools across the region from Baratang to Diglipur. By imparting these skills through our trainer staff we could insisited self confidence and self reliance in 3500 girls.

2. "MAHILA MANCH"

The district police have launched an initiative called "Mahila Manch", with the goal of empowering women living in the remote villages of the district. The programme included a thought-provoking discussion, focusing on pressing issues such as crimes against women and domestic violence affecting women and children, enlighten them on legal provisions, to encourage them to stand up with courage. Once in a month, the Mahila Manch reached to the women's of remote villages of Kishorinagar, Karren Community Webi and Dharampur Village Billiground.

3. CONTRUCTION OF CHILDREN TRAFFIC PARK AT DIGIPUR

A need was felt to develop a children traffic park in N&M Andaman district to create awareness among children on road safety practices, promote responsible behaviour, in engaging and educational environment. It contributes to well being and safety of community's youngest member and encourages them as road safety ambassador and spread awareness in families and community. In this regard, a piece of land of 1200 sq mtr was got allocated by District Administration to N&M Andaman District Police and a children traffic and adventure park is constructed. The main features of this traffic park include Traffic sign zone, Bicycle track, Miniature cityscape, adventure field craft, interactive e-learning kiosk and interactive workshops.

4. "E-MALKHANA"

The North & Middle Andaman District Police pioneered in implementing E-Malkhana system across all Police Stations of the North & Middle Andaman District. The E-Malkhana system introduced digitalization to the management of case properties stored at malkhanas of Police Stations. With the implementation of this system, accessing details of case properties stored at the police malkhana becomes more efficient and convenient. It not only improves accessibility but also enhances transparency and accountability in the handling of case properties.

5. ISO CERTIFICATION OF POLICE STATIONS

North & Middle Andaman District Police pioneered in achieving the ISO 9001:2015 certification of Police Stations Rangat and Diglipur, marking a significant milestone in their commitment to excellence and quality service. Rest 05 Police Stations have also acquired certification by now.

6. ELECTION MITRA “CHAT BOT”

An in-house developed chatbot, named "Election Mitra," a significant milestone in the technological upgradation efforts was born out of extensive discussions with various stakeholders, involved in the election process, wherein a need was felt to ensure that all personnel, right up to the last man, must have ready and all-time access to authentic information put out by the Election Commission of India, in a user-friendly and interactive manner and readily accessible by scanning a QR code.

7. GEOTAGGING OF ALL POLLING STATIONS

Another technological initiative that has been launched, is the geo-tagging and colour coding of all Polling stations, vulnerable pockets, locations of repeat offenders and History sheeters and other useful information. These geotagged maps not only provide a ready reference and area familiarization to the outside CAPF forces but are also of immense help in planning the Area Domination and other checking activities thereby enhancing the efficiency and effectiveness of these exercises. These geotagged maps are available on platform of Google Maps and have been made available to all the police personnel deployed for election duty.

8. BUST OF COW SMUGGLING

N&M Andaman District Police have successfully cracked many theft and notorious cow smuggling operations that were operating from N&MA District to Port Blair using the sea route. Subsequently, many cases were registered under relevant sections of IPC. During the operations, a total of 60 cows were rescued and 10 accused persons were arrested. The operations carried out with exemplary bravery and demonstrates the unwavering commitment of the district police in upholding the law and protecting the welfare of animals.

9. ANTIPOACHING TASK FORCE

Poaching activities are very prevalent in N&M since always. The geography and terrain of the district makes it prone to poaching activities by Myanmarese poachers.

To address this issue, an Anti-poaching Task Force was constituted. It was trained in map reading, weapon handling, jungle survival and geography and terrain of the poaching prone areas. To augment the capability of Task Force, a modern day “Anti- poaching Kit” consisting of light weight and modern articles like Tents, water proof pouches, special walkie talkie sets, GPS etc. were procured. As a result, the district has apprehended 55 Myanmarese poachers in different occasions and seized 07 big engine dinghies. I/c Anti-Poaching Task Force has also been awarded LG’s Commendation Disc for their achievement.

10. ALLOCATION OF ALTERNATE LAND FOR PS BARATANG BUILDING

PS Baratang is functionally in a semi RCC structure on a land allotted to Police. But due to nature of land being under Reserved Forest area, a permanent RCC building for PS has not been constructed. The matter was taken up at many occasions for necessary clearances but of no avail till date. After I visited the PS Baratang I realized there is an alternate revenue land available near PS Baratang present building which if allotted to Police department will be very much suitable to construct a permanent building for PS. So, I initiated the proposal with PHQ as well as District Administration. And after an effort of 01 year now, we are on the final stage of allotment of alternate revenue land by A&N administration and hopefully will get the land allotted in a very short span of time.

11. STAFF WELFARE CELL

To effectively address and ease the challenges faced by our valued staff, a dedicated team known as "Staff Welfare Cell" constituted at SP(D)N&MA Office. The motive of the team is to encourage a positive and supportive work environment, ensuring the well-being and satisfaction of our staff. The team is committed to identify such Police personnel who have deviant or disturbed behavior, or may be behavior different from their natural behavior. The team intends to identify, understand, interact & counsel the identified staff and make possible efforts to resolve issues. Till now 05 such cases have been highlighted and sorted out through counselling sessions.

12. INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE

To effectively address the challenges faced by women police personnel, an "Internal Complaint Committee" (ICC) has been constituted to handle complaints of sexual harassment from female officers in the North and Middle Andaman district. The committee's approach is both reactive and proactive, aiming to support and empower women police officers while ensuring they feel safe, respected, and protected in their workplace. The goal is to create an environment where female personnel can perform their duties without fear of harassment or discrimination. By implementing this framework to set a standard for gender-sensitive policing and workplace equality, fostering a culture where all personnel, regardless of gender, can thrive professionally.

NICOBAR DISTRICT POLICE

1. E-MALKHANA WITH STATE-OF-THE-ART QR CODE TECHNOLOGY:

E-Malkhana has been successfully implemented in Nicobar District. Furthermore, all police stations in the district have generated QR codes for all case properties kept in the police station Malkhana. These QR codes have been affixed to the respective properties.

2. MAHILA MANCH:

Nicobar District Police held the inaugural session of "Mahila Manch", an initiative designed to address the challenges and concerns faced by women in the villages. This community outreach program aims to raise an environment of support and open dialogue, empowering women by offering guidance on important issues affecting their lives and understanding their concerns as well. Around 40 Nos. sessions in Nicobar District at all Police Stations are organized at village & community level to empower & educate women, girl & child through discussed on legal rights, healthcare, education, leadership, etc. Separately, self-defense classes for girl at Schools/Institutions were conducted and awareness programme on Cyber Safety, Gender sensitivity, POCSO, Crime Against Women and reporting mechanism are conducted to enhance their safety and confidence.

3. POLICE BAAL SANVAAD:

The "Baal-Police Sanvaad" initiative aims to bridge the gap between police and the younger generation. Students from various schools visit the all police station fortnightly. They eagerly explored law enforcement sections and were enlightened with insights into police work, including an introduction to three new Bharatiya criminal laws: Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023; Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023; and Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam (BSA), 2023. The visit underscored the importance of providing support in unexpected situations, nurturing community resilience.

4. WE CARE-THE BRIDGING GENERATION:

A transformative initiative inaugurated by worthy Director General of Police, A&N Islands on the occasion of World Elder's Day, the Nicobar District continue making efforts and successfully implemented the initiative on ground level. Under the initiative, needs and concerns of senior citizens, particularly those who live alone or are vulnerable. This initiative creates sense of security, reduce feelings of isolation, and build a stronger bond between Police department and the elderly community members under Nicobar

District jurisdiction. Police officers regularly visited the homes of registered senior citizens on a fortnightly basis.

5. ANTI-POACHING OPERATION:

Nicobar District Police takes prompt action on credible information received from the general public regarding sighting of the Burmese Dinghy. During poaching activity, it puts the geographical and territorial area under threat by Mayanmares poachers. To address this issue, an Anti-Poaching Task force was constituted. Before going on Anti-Poaching the task force is fully prepared for the mission and was provided with Anti -Poaching Kit like GPS, Tents and Satellite Phone etc. As a result, 71 Mayanmares Poachers were apprehended and confiscated their belonging by the task force under Nicobar District during the period from 2019 to 2025.

Andaman & Nicobar Fire & Emergency Services

Andaman & Nicobar Fire & Emergency Services is dedicated to ensuring the safety of Life & Property for the inhabitants of the Islands with its 24 Fire Stations spread across the A&N Islands, the Fire Service provides comprehensive coverage and quick response during any emergencies. The Fire Service also focuses on proactive measures, including imparting essential training in First Aid, Fire Fighting and disaster preparedness to both general public and government employees. This is aimed at empowering individuals with the knowledge and skills necessary to enhance personal and community safety. The following are the do's & don'ts to prevent mishaps and ensure the safety of life and property: -

(1) Do's for Fire Prevention:

- i. Matches and lighters should be kept safely out of children's reach.
- ii. Leave no open fire unattended especially when children can reach it.
- iii. Make sure that children do not play with fire work except under strict supervision.
- iv. Keep Children away from kitchen and other fires.
- v. In the event of clothing fire lie flat on ground and roll. If a blanket is available wrap yourself in it or rug coat etc.,
- vi. Use metal ashtrays while smoking to dispose-off matches, used Cigarettes and Bidis.
- vii. All receptacles for waste should be emptied at regular intervals.
- viii. Use only one electrical appliance in one Socket.
- ix. Keep the electrical wires away from Hot & Wet surfaces.
- x. Switch off the appliance after use and remove the plug from the socket.
- xi. Switch off the main switch when leaving office / houses for a long duration.
- xii. Keep the escape routes / staircases free of any obstruction.
- xiii. Get your electrical appliances checked periodically.
- xiv. Use the correct size for your fuse wire. When in doubt, consult an expert.
- xv. If leaks are suspected in the cooking gas installed in the kitchen, no match should be struck or electrical switch operated. The safest method of dealing with gas is to ventilate the kitchen and tighten all gas valves.

(2) Don'ts to Prevention Fire :

- i. Do not smoke in bed.
- ii. Do not throw lighted matches, cigarette ends, pipe, bottle etc., carelessly. Use an ashtray half filled with water.

RIGHTS EXTENDED TO THE PERSONS ARRESTED, DETAINED IN POLICE CUSTODY AS PER NHRC GUIDELINES AND HON'BLE SUPREME COURT JUDGEMENT DATED 18.12.96 IN CRL. C.W.P NO. 539/86- D.K. BASU VS. STATE OF WEST BENGAL.

PRE-ARREST

- a) The power to arrest without a warrant should be exercised only after a reasonable satisfaction is reached, after some investigation, as to the genuineness and bonafides of a complaint and a reasonable belief as to both the person's complicity as well as the need to affect arrest.
- b) Arrest cannot be justified merely on the existence of power, as a matter of law, to arrest without a warrant in a cognizable case.
- c) The question whether the power of arrest exercised has been reasonable or not, is clearly a justiciable one.
- d) Arrest in cognizable cases may be considered justified in one or other of the following circumstances:
 - (i) The case involves a grave offence like murder, dacoity, robbery, rape etc., and it is necessary to arrest the suspect to prevent him from escaping or evading the process of law.
 - (ii) The suspect is given to violent behaviour and is likely to commit further offences.
 - (iii) The suspect requires to be prevented from destroying evidence or interfering with witnesses or warning other suspects who have not yet been arrested.
 - (iv) The suspect is a habitual offender who unless arrested, is likely to commit similar or further offences.
- e). Except in heinous offences, as mentioned above, an arrest must be avoided if a Police officer issue notice to the person to attend the police station and not leave the station without permission.

- f). The power to arrest must be avoided where the offences are bailable unless there is a strong apprehension of the suspect absconding.
- g). Police officers carrying out an arrest or interrogation should bear clear identification and name tags with designation. The particulars of police personnel carrying out the arrest or interrogation should be recorded contemporaneously, in a register kept at the police station.

ARREST:

1. As a rule, use of force should be avoidable while affecting arrest. However, in case of forcible resistance to arrest minimum force to overcome such resistance may be used. However, care must be taken to ensure that injuries to the person being arrested, visible or otherwise, is avoided.
- 2 That the police officer carrying out the arrest of the arrestee shall prepare a memo of arrest at the time of arrest and such memo shall be attested by at least one witness, who may be either a member of the family of the arrestee or a respectable person of the locality from where the arrest is made. It shall also be counter signed by the arrestee and shall contain the time and date of arrest.
- 3 The dignity of the person being arrested should be protected. Public display or parading of the person arrested should not be permitted at any cost.
- 4 Searches of the person arrested must be done with due respect to the dignity of the person, without force or aggression and with care for the person's right to privacy. Searches of women should only be made by other women officers with strict regard to decency.
- 5 The use of handcuffs or leg chains should be avoided and if at all, it should be resorted to strictly in accordance with the law repeatedly explained.
- 6 A person who has been arrested or detained and is being held in custody in a police station or interrogation center or other lock-up, shall be entitled to have one friend or relative or other person known to him or having interest in his welfare being informed, as soon as practicable, that he has been arrested and is being detained at the particular place, unless the attesting witness of the memo of arrest is himself such a friend or a relative of the arrestee.

7. The time, place of arrest and venue of custody of an arrestee must be notified by the police where the next friend or relative of the arrestee lives outside the district or town through the Legal Aid Organization in the District and the police station of the area concerned telegraphically within a period of 8 to 12 hours after the arrest.
8. The person arrested must be made aware of this right to have someone informed of his arrest or detention as soon as he is put under arrest or is detained.
